1: A family celebration

Talk about a family celebration you had recently.

You should say:

- ☐ why family celebrations are important in Malaysia

2: A person you admire

Talk about a person you admire.

You should say:

- ☐ who this person is
- ☐ what this person looks like
- ☐ why you admire this person
- ☐ if you think it is important for people to have good role models (why / why not?)

Last month, our family had a birthday celebration for my sister. My brother and I are the ~~organizer~~ organisers for this birthday party. We both had organised a variety of interesting activities such as playing ~~a~~ musical chairs, puzzles, and many more. I really enjoyed myself during that event because it is one of ~~a~~ the good memories in my life. Family celebration is very important to strengthen family ties.

The person that I admire the most is James Hetfield. He is the main singer and rhythm guitarist of Metallica. He is a nice and very lovable person. Why do I admire him?? I admire him because he ~~got~~ has a very creative mind in writing ~~the~~ songs, not only that but he is also a great leader. He managed to keep his band together for over 41 years as of this year. I think it is important for people to have a good role model because it can inspired them to be what they want in the future.

~~The last few weeks were new year's~~, A few weeks ago was New Year's Day. My family and I celebrated New Year at home. It was simple yet extravagant. There were varieties of scrumptious foods served and we enjoyed the food as we were dining together at the dining hall. When the clock struck 12, there were loud sounds of fireworks from outside. We immediately went outside to watch the fireworks. I enjoyed this year's New Year celebration because it's a wonderful thing to happen to start the new year with.

Taking everything into consideration, celebrations are indeed important in Malaysia because celebrations are a symbol of unity for Malaysian citizens as Malaysia is ~~packed~~ populated various races. Thus, with celebrations, it creates a bond between the citizens in Malaysia.

The person I admire the most is my mother. My mother is a beautiful woman who loves to dress elegantly especially in suits and designer dresses like Padini. Other than that, my mother is also a hardworking woman. Since I was little, she always showed her confidence and kindness to the people around her. I remember she gave sweets to the neighbours' kids when they couldn't stop crying. Therefore, I think it is important for an individual to have a great role model to admire because it helps to motivate us into being a better version of ourselves. PART 2 OF PART 3: In what ways does advertising on social media influence people's buying behaviour?	From my perspective, advertising on social media influences people's buying behaviour by creating attention of the product to the customers.	In lieu of this, social media such as Instagram is a great platform to promote a product because everyone uses Insta almost every day so it is a great place to influence buyers.	Take for example, if we put ourselves in other people's shoes, we couldn't agree more that creative illustration of a Harry Potter book along with reasonable prices can attract those bookworms to buy it if they saw the advertisements in Insta or FB.
