

Marking Guidelines

Part 1 – Question 1

C1 → Mention one best thing to do before going to bed. More than 1 thing - accepted.

C2 → Must relate to C1 and explain why it is effective.

If not related → No C2 awarded.

C3 → A specific time is mentioned:

✓ Accepted: “10.00 pm” / “midnight”

✗ Not accepted: “before midnight”

C4 → Duration of time is mentioned.

Part 2 – Question 2

C1 → Household chores 1 and 2 are mentioned. If only 1 is mentioned, consider minor omission.

C2 → One general reason why everyone (not just teenagers) should do household chores. If the student links C2 to C1 → Accept.

C3 → Way 1 and 2 to motivate teenagers to help at home. If only 1 is mentioned, consider minor omission.

Note:

If the student only talks about themselves in C3, without mentioning other teenagers, consider it minor irrelevance.

Part 3 – Question 3 (Story)

C1 → Description of the mystery, written in the tone of a story (narrative).

C2 → One reason why it remained unsolved, written in narrative style.

C3 → Must use the given phrase. If extra words are added but the meaning remains unchanged → Award C3.

Part 3 – Question 4 (Article)

C1 → Crime 1 and 2 are mentioned. If only 1 is mentioned, consider minor omission.

C2 → Reason 1 and 2 must relate to C1. Not related → No C2 awarded.

C3 → Way 1 and 2 are mentioned in relation to crime in general. If linked to C1, award C3.

Part 3 – Question 5 (Review)

C1 → Name of the homestay is mentioned.

C2 → Description of the homestay (must refer to C1 only, not another homestay), written in review style and tone.

C3 → Recommendation is given — e.g., “Yes” or equivalent expressions.

C4 → Reason related to the recommendation.

Not related → No C4 awarded.
